Dale,

I just mentioned to Jonathan while catching up on email this week that I spoke to our assistant attorney general earlier this week in the midst of our legislative hearings. I'm updating the cabinet secretary on that conversation this morning. We should arrange a call as well so I can update you.

Jason

Jason,

We understand that you are busy and there are a great many concerns facing West Virginia at this time. I know that Jonathan has reached out to you and I understand there was to be some movement last week. However, we began this process a number of months ago, and would like to complete this as soon as possible. Are there concerns that need to be addressed? What can we do to move this to the next stage? Would a phone call help? Looking forward to hearing from you.
